CHAPTER 7 TIMELINE

1. Conduct the initial interview.
2. Schedule a follow-up interview with the client and the students with or without the team attorney. This may be by telephone call, or an actual meeting at the attorney's office or at the Law School. It is preferable that this next contact occur within 2 weeks of the initial interview. This insures that the case is moving forward, and allows time for the team to check the information that it has gathered and to determine if anything else is needed. It also gives the client time to gather any requested documents, and to think about the information already given.
3. Complete and hand in to the Pro Bono Coordinator the interview evaluation form. Both students and the volunteer attorneys need to complete these forms.
4. Ensure that the client receives approved credit counseling from one of the agencies approved by the United States Trustee.
5. Prepare a draft Chapter 7 petition, schedules and creditor matrix. This should be done, at least in part by the second interview, for the supervising attorney's review and to identify any incomplete portions.
6. Complete the Current Monthly Income & Means Test Calculations.
7. Arrange an appointment with the client to review and sign the Chapter 7 petition.
8. Counsel client about post-petition responsibilities and explain what happens next with their case. Highlight the importance of prompt post-petition payments to their landlord and the utility companies.
9. Promptly file the Chapter 7 petition, schedules, creditor matrix and pro bono cover sheet with the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court, Mitchell H. Cohen U.S. Courthouse, 401 Market Street, Camden, New Jersey 08101-2067 or 50 Walnut Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102. You will need 1 hard copy of the Petition, and 2 copies for you to get time-stamped for return to the attorney's file and to the client. If the attorney uses electronic filing, check with them prior to making your copies. If you only file the petition, then the schedules and creditor matrix must be filed no later than 14 days thereafter, otherwise the petition may be dismissed.

10. Draft notice of bankruptcy filing to those creditors identified as “harassing/problem creditors” or one that requires immediate notice in order to cease harmful collection activity, e.g. eviction, utility shut-off, judgment entry.
11. Within 2-3 weeks of filing the petition, be alert for notice from the U.S. Trustee scheduling the § 341(a) First Meeting of Creditors. Notice will be sent to the client, the attorney of record, and the creditors listed on the matrix. Schedule a meeting by telephone or in person with the client to discuss the preparation and attendance at this meeting. 3L students should attend these meetings. The attorney of record is required to attend.
12. Approximately 20-40 days after the Petition is filed, attend the § 341(a) First Meeting of Creditors with the client. Briefly review post-petition issues and advise the client of the next steps in their case.
13. Be aware of important deadlines tied to the scheduling of the § 341(a) meeting: Objections to Exemptions must be filed by the creditor(s) no later than 30 days after the conclusion of the meeting. Complaints to determine dischargeability must be filed no later than 60 days after the conclusion of the meeting. Even though this deadline applies to creditors, it is good practice to file any complaints to determine dischargeability by the debtor also before the expiration of the 60 day period. Reaffirmations as to personalty must be filed within 30 days after the 341 meeting or the automatic stay as to that property will terminate.
14. Draft complaint to determine dischargeability, motion for lien avoidance, or other court documents or amendments to debtor’s schedules as needed. Amendments to debtor’s petition, schedules, list, or statement may be done at any time before the case is closed.
15. As the time for discharge approaches, review any issues for discussion with client such as reaffirmations or redemptions of credit. These papers must be filed not more than 30 days following the entry of an order granting or denying a discharge, with not less than 10 days notice to the debtor and the trustee. Reaffirmations must be made prior to the granting of a discharge.
16. Approximately four to six months after the petition was filed, provide client with discharge notice and discuss post-discharge issues with client. Send closing letter to client. Send status letter to referral agency with copy to the Rutgers Project.

LEGAL SERVICES GUIDELINES/POVERTY LEVELS

To understand the types of clients that will commonly be referred to the Project, it is helpful to understand the eligibility criteria utilized by Legal Services in determining the client's qualifications for pro bono legal assistance, since Legal Services provides the screening service for the Project.

Legal Services is prohibited from representing individuals whose family income exceeds the values indicated on the table below. For referral purposes, the Rutgers Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project accepts up to 200% of the national poverty level.

TABLE OF MAXIMUM INCOME LEVELS

Family Size	Max Gross Weekly Income	Max Gross Monthly Income	200% Increased Limit for Project	2016 Poverty Guideline		125% of Guideline	150% of Guideline to Waive Filing Fees

Legal Services may consider the existence of one or more other factors in justifying a waiver of the maximum income limitations. These factors include: (1) the current income prospects, taking into account seasonal variations in income; (2) medical expenses; (3) commitment of the applicant's gross income primarily to medical/nursing expenses; (4) fixed debts and obligations, including unpaid state, federal and local taxes, and court-ordered alimony or child support actually being paid; (5) child care, transportation and other expenses necessary for employment; (6) expenses associated with age or physical infirmity of resident family members; and (7) other significant factors related to financial liability to afford legal assistance, in the discretion of the Program Administrator.

In determining the eligibility of an applicant whose income does not exceed the MIL, the following factors are also taken into consideration:

1. If the applicant's current income prospects, taking into account seasonal variations in income, are likely to exceed the MIL, the applicant may be determined ineligible in the discretion of the Director.
2. Where private representation is available at a low cost with respect to the particular matter in which assistance is sought, the applicant may be determined ineligible in the discretion of the Director.
3. Where the consequences for the individual are insignificant if legal assistance is denied, the applicant may be determined ineligible in the discretion of the Director.
4. Where there are assets in existence which are available to the applicant and they are in excess of the asset ceiling set in Section VII, the application shall be denied.
5. Where there is a determination either by admission or by a prior administrative or judicial decision that the applicant refuses or is unwilling, without good cause, to seek or accept suitable employment, the application for services will be denied.

Legal Services also evaluates the client's eligibility in terms of certain "asset ceilings". If the family unit's total includable assets exceed said limits then the applicant's request for assistance will be denied, subject to certain waiver provisions. The asset ceilings, as established by the Board of Directors of Legal Services take into consideration the economy of the particular county and the cost of living for low-income persons so as to ensure the availability of Legal Services' limited resources and services to those in the greatest need.

The maximum allowable equity value of liquid assets, as defined by SJLS, which an applicant and/or any resident member of the family unit may own shall not exceed:

- Seniors - $12,000 maximum for senior household;
- Others - $10,000 maximum for family unit.

The Director is vested with the authority to waive the ceilings on allowable assets in unusual or extremely meritorious situations.

If a client who had been determined to be eligible subsequently becomes ineligible because of increased income and/or receipt or availability of assets or liquidation of formerly non-liquid assets and the reason for the ineligibility is sufficiently likely to continue, then the client will be notified that he/she no longer qualifies for the SJLS services and the reason for the disqualification, if it will not act to prejudice the client's case and is not inconsistent with an attorney's professional responsibilities. The notification will give the client a reasonable time to retain private counsel.

RE: Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project
Retainer Agreement

Dear (Client):

It was a pleasure meeting with you on _____ (Date) _____ at the Rutgers Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project in Camden. The students and I appreciated the opportunity to work with you to help resolve your financial difficulties. As we have previously discussed with you, we think that filing a petition for bankruptcy relief under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code is the best solution to address your situation.

The recent Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act of 2005 requires attorneys to make certain disclosures and to specify what duties they will perform. This letter is intended to conform with that law and to serve as a retainer or engagement agreement between us. By signing this letter, we have agreed to represent you in your bankruptcy case, as spelled out below. When you sign this letter and return it to us, it will serve as a contract between us. This agreement does not require you to pay us for the legal services to be provided by us, as listed below. As you know, representation obtained through the Project is rendered free of charge.

Please read this agreement carefully and be sure that you understand it. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us prior to signing and returning the letter.

Pursuant to this agreement, we agree to:

1. Meet with you as necessary to discuss your financial situation and how bankruptcy may help you;
2. Provide you with the notice required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) which outlines the purpose, benefits and costs of filing under the various chapters of the Bankruptcy Code;

3. Provide you with the names and contact information of the various credit counseling agencies that are available to you. (Please note that the law requires that you attend, in person, by telephone or over the internet, a counseling session presented by an approved agency prior to filing for bankruptcy);
4. Explain to you the penalties for committing certain bankruptcy crimes;
5. Prepare for your review the required bankruptcy petition, schedules, statement of financial affairs, statement of intention and any other documents (including applications to pay the filing fee in installments or to proceed in forma pauperis, as necessary) required to file your bankruptcy case;
6. File the necessary petition and schedules. (The filing fee, to the extent that it is required, is your responsibility and is not covered by the Project);
7. Prepare you for and attend with you the 341 First Meeting of Creditors;
8. Prepare and file any additional documents required by the Chapter 7 trustee following the 341 Meeting of Creditors;
9. Assist you in the negotiation and completion of any reaffirmation agreements that are in conformance with the law and in your best interest, and to
10. Keep you informed of any important developments in your case.

Pursuant to this agreement, you agree to:

1. Promptly respond to any letters or calls for us and to keep any appointments with us or to call in advance to cancel such an appointment;
2. Inform us of any change in your address or telephone number;
3. Provide us with all of the necessary information to complete your petition, schedules, statements and other related documents, including the disclosure of any change in your income or assets;
4. Attend, in person, by telephone or over the internet, a credit counseling session presented by an approved agency and provide us with a copy of the certificate of completion of such a course prior to filing for bankruptcy;

5. Appear at any hearings or court appearances as required, and
6. Pay any required filing fees which are not waived.

This agreement may be terminated at any time by you, subject to court approval (where required). We may stop representing you, subject to court approval, if required, if it is determined that further representation would be useless, unreasonable or would not help you to achieve your objectives, you are no longer financially eligible for pro bono services or you have failed to cooperate with us.

It is understood that any information disclosed to us regarding your case will be kept confidential. However, you recognize that we may discuss your case with Rutgers University School of Law - Camden law students who are assisting in the preparation of your case, and other people to the extent it is necessary to represent you in this case.

This document represents the complete agreement between the parties. It shall be void if it is not executed and returned by you within fourteen (14) days from receipt.

Sincerely,

RE: Bankruptcy Counseling Appointment: (Date)

Dear ():

As you know, you have been referred to the Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project at Rutgers School of Law-Camden by South Jersey Legal Services. The Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project at the Law School coordinates the provision of pro bono legal representation in specified bankruptcy cases by volunteer attorneys and law students to individuals referred by certain other legal organizations. Since your situation appears to meet the criteria for referral to the Law School's Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project, we are notifying you of your eligibility for pro bono representation in your bankruptcy matter through the Project. If you choose to accept this pro bono legal representation, your bankruptcy matter will be handled by one or two law students who will be supervised, reviewed, and monitored by an experienced volunteer attorney.

Since you have chosen to take advantage of these pro bono legal services, we have scheduled your appointment for (Date and Time) at the Pro Bono Offices of Rutgers University School of Law, 217 N. Fifth Street, Camden, NJ 08102. We are located very close to the Benjamin Franklin Bridge in an active area of the campus. Directions to the law school are attached.

Please bring a valid ID with you when you come to the law school on your scheduled date.

You will be meeting with a law student and a supervising volunteer attorney in private practice. They will discuss with you the particulars of your situation and make a determination as to whether or not a Chapter 7 "No Asset" bankruptcy proceeding is right for you. To aid in this process, you must bring the following documents:

1. A list of what you own other than household furnishings and clothing;
2. A list of all the money you owe others (your debts) including name and address of creditor, account number, approximate amount owed to each, and description of the charges;
3. Copies of any recent notices from your creditors and government agencies, and any legal papers sent to you by people to whom you owe money;
4. Notices of law suits, eviction notices, or any other document that you believe requires immediate attention;

5. Your last 60 days of payment advices (pay stubs, unemployment checks, worker's comp checks, or Social Security deposits) for you and your spouse;
6. A breakdown of your monthly income and expenses;
7. Your bank statements covering the last 60 days;
8. Copies of your last two years tax returns;
9. Originals of all correspondence, bills, collection letters, lawsuits, or any communications from creditors;
10. Record of any interest in an education IRA or Section 529 plan;
11. Your credit report. (You can call Equifax at 800-525-6285 or TransUnion at 800-680-7289 to order it before you come in for your appointment.)

After thoroughly reviewing your financial situation, the attorney will decide whether your case can be handled by the Rutgers Project. It is important for you to note that if your case is accepted, the supervising attorney will be responsible for it; however, preparation of documents to be filed with the bankruptcy court, meetings, and certain court appearances may be handled by a law student under the direction of the attorney.

Please reconfirm your appointment by 10:00 a.m. on the morning of your scheduled appointment so that we are sure you are coming. If you must cancel or reschedule your appointment time, call Pam Mertsock-Wolfe at 856-225-6406 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. We realize that your schedule may change and we must be able to notify our volunteer attorney in plenty of time if you need to cancel your appointment. If you do not show up for a scheduled appointment, and you did not call ahead to reschedule, we may not be able to reschedule you.

Sincerely,

Pam Mertsock-Wolfe

RE: Rutgers Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project

Dear [client's name]:

It was my pleasure meeting with you on [weekday, date] in connection with the Rutgers's Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project. At that time, you expressed your desire to file for protection under the United States Bankruptcy Code. We discussed your assets and liabilities. You advised me that your current monthly income is substantially greater than your current monthly expenses. According to my notes, your monthly income is [$X.00] while your monthly expenses are closer to [$Y.00]. Thus, you have excess disposable monthly income of approximately [$Z.00].

I advised you that because you have substantial excess monthly income, you are a candidate for a Chapter 13 bankruptcy rather than a Chapter 7 case. As we discussed, there is a possibility that you could pay for an attorney through your plan. Accordingly you do not fit within the parameters of the Project. You should consult an attorney who specializes in Chapter 13 bankruptcy practice. There are many attorneys who specialize in Chapter 13 bankruptcy practice for a minimum fee. You may call the Lawyer Referral Service in your county (a list of numbers is enclosed), or South Jersey Legal Services at (856) 964-2010 for a list of referral agencies.

I trust this information is of assistance to you. Good luck in the future.

Very truly yours,

Check one box only as directed in this form and in Form 122A-1Supp:

- 1. There is no presumption of abuse.
- 2. The calculation to determine if a presumption of abuse applies will be made under Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).
- 3. The Means Test does not apply now because of qualified military service but it could apply later.

Check if this is an amended filing

Official Form 122A-1

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). If you believe that you are exempted from a presumption of abuse because you do not have primarily consumer debts or because of qualifying military service, complete and file Statement of Exemption from Presumption of Abuse Under § 707(b)(2) (Official Form 122A-1Supp) with this form.

Part 1: Calculate Your Current Monthly Income

1. What is your marital and filing status? Check one only.

- Not married. Fill out Column A, lines 2-11.
- Married and your spouse is filing with you. Fill out both Columns A and B, lines 2-11.
- Married and your spouse is NOT filing with you. You and your spouse are:
 - Living in the same household and are not legally separated. Fill out both Columns A and B, lines 2-11.
 - Living separately or are legally separated. Fill out Column A, lines 2-11; do not fill out Column B. By checking this box, you declare under penalty of perjury that you and your spouse are legally separated under nonbankruptcy law that applies or that you and your spouse are living apart for reasons that do not include evading the Means Test requirements. 11 U.S.C. § 707(b)(7)(B).

Fill in the average monthly income that you received from all sources, derived during the 6 full months before you file this bankruptcy case. 11 U.S.C. § 101(10A). For example, if you are filing on September 15, the 6-month period would be March 1 through August 31. If the amount of your monthly income varied during the 6 months, add the income for all 6 months and divide the total by 6. Fill in the result. Do not include any income amount more than once. For example, if both spouses own the same rental property, put the income from that property in one column only. If you have nothing to report for any line, write $0 in the space.

Column A	Column B
Debtor 1	Debtor 2 or non-filing spouse

2. Your gross wages, salary, tips, bonuses, overtime, and commissions (before all payroll deductions).		$ _____	$ _____
3. Alimony and maintenance payments. Do not include payments from a spouse if Column B is filled in.		$ _____	$ _____
4. All amounts from any source which are regularly paid for household expenses of you or your dependents, including child support. Include regular contributions from an unmarried partner, members of your household, your dependents, parents, and roommates. Include regular contributions from a spouse only if Column B is not filled in. Do not include payments you listed on line 3.		$ _____	$ _____

11. Calculate your total current monthly income. Add lines 2 through 10 for each column. Then add the total for Column A to the total for Column B.

$ + $ = $ Total current monthly income

Part 2: Determine Whether the Means Test Applies to You

12. Calculate your current monthly income for the year. Follow these steps:

12a. Copy your total current monthly income from line 11. Copy line 11 here $ x 12 12b. The result is your annual income for this part of the form. $

13. Calculate the median family income that applies to you. Follow these steps:

Fill in the state in which you live. Fill in the number of people in your household. Fill in the median family income for your state and size of household. 13. $ To find a list of applicable median income amounts, go online using the link specified in the separate instructions for this form. Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation

04/16

To fill out this form, you will need your completed copy of Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1).

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for being accurate. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. Include the line number to which the additional information applies. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: Determine Your Adjusted Income

1. Copy your total current monthly income. Copy line 11 from Official Form 122A-1 here → $ _____

2. Did you fill out Column B in Part 1 of Form 122A-1?

- No. Fill in $0 for the total on line 3.
- Yes. Is your spouse filing with you?
 - No. Go to line 3.
 - Yes. Fill in $0 for the total on line 3.

3. Adjust your current monthly income by subtracting any part of your spouse's income not used to pay for the household expenses of you or your dependents. Follow these steps:

On line 11, Column B of Form 122A-1, was any amount of the income you reported for your spouse NOT regularly used for the household expenses of you or your dependents?

- No. Fill in 0 for the total on line 3.
- Yes. Fill in the information below:

Part 2: Calculate Your Deductions from Your Income

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issues National and Local Standards for certain expense amounts. Use these amounts to answer the questions in lines 6-15. To find the IRS standards, go online using the link specified in the separate instructions for this form. This information may also be available at the bankruptcy clerk's office.

Deduct the expense amounts set out in lines 6-15 regardless of your actual expense. In later parts of the form, you will use some of your actual expenses if they are higher than the standards. Do not deduct any amounts that you subtracted from your spouse's income in line 3 and do not deduct any operating expenses that you subtracted from income in lines 5 and 6 of Form 122A-1.

If your expenses differ from month to month, enter the average expense.

Whenever this part of the form refers to you, it means both you and your spouse if Column B of Form 122A-1 is filled in.

5. The number of people used in determining your deductions from income

Fill in the number of people who could be claimed as exemptions on your federal income tax return, plus the number of any additional dependents whom you support. This number may be different from the number of people in your household.

[Empty box for line 5]

National Standards You must use the IRS National Standards to answer the questions in lines 6-7.

6. Food, clothing, and other items: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for food, clothing, and other items. $

7. Out-of-pocket health care allowance: Using the number of people you entered in line 5 and the IRS National Standards, fill in the dollar amount for out-of-pocket health care. The number of people is split into two categories—people who are under 65 and people who are 65 or older—because older people have a higher IRS allowance for health care costs. If your actual expenses are higher than this IRS amount, you may deduct the additional amount on line 22.

Local Standards You must use the IRS Local Standards to answer the questions in lines 8-15.

Based on information from the IRS, the U.S. Trustee Program has divided the IRS Local Standard for housing for bankruptcy purposes into two parts:

- Housing and utilities – Insurance and operating expenses
- Housing and utilities – Mortgage or rent expenses

To answer the questions in lines 8-9, use the U.S. Trustee Program chart.

To find the chart, go online using the link specified in the separate instructions for this form. This chart may also be available at the bankruptcy clerk's office.

8. Housing and utilities – Insurance and operating expenses: Using the number of people you entered in line 5, fill in the dollar amount listed for your county for insurance and operating expenses. $ _____

9. Housing and utilities – Mortgage or rent expenses:

9a. Using the number of people you entered in line 5, fill in the dollar amount listed for your county for mortgage or rent expenses. $ _____

9b. Total average monthly payment for all mortgages and other debts secured by your home.

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

8. How you will pay the fee

- I will pay the entire fee when I file my petition. Please check with the clerk's office in your local court for more details about how you may pay. Typically, if you are paying the fee yourself, you may pay with cash, cashier's check, or money order. If your attorney is submitting your payment on your behalf, your attorney may pay with a credit card or check with a pre-printed address.
I need to pay the fee in installments. If you choose this option, sign and attach the Application for Individuals to Pay The Filing Fee in Installments (Official Form 103A).
I request that my fee be waived (You may request this option only if you are filing for Chapter 7. By law, a judge may, but is not required to, waive your fee, and may do so only if your income is less than 150% of the official poverty line that applies to your family size and you are unable to pay the fee in installments). If you choose this option, you must fill out the Application to Have the Chapter 7 Filing Fee Waived (Official Form 103B) and file it with your petition.

13. Are you filing under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and are you a small business debtor?

For a definition of small business debtor, see 11 U.S.C. § 101(51D).

If you are filing under Chapter 11, the court must know whether you are a small business debtor so that it can set appropriate deadlines. If you indicate that you are a small business debtor, you must attach your most recent balance sheet, statement of operations, cash-flow statement, and federal income tax return or if any of these documents do not exist, follow the procedure in 11 U.S.C. § 1116(1)(B).

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

Incapacity. I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

Disability. My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

Active duty. I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

For you if you are filing this bankruptcy without an attorney

If you are represented by an attorney, you do not need to file this page.

The law allows you, as an individual, to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, but you should understand that many people find it extremely difficult to represent themselves successfully. Because bankruptcy has long-term financial and legal consequences, you are strongly urged to hire a qualified attorney.

To be successful, you must correctly file and handle your bankruptcy case. The rules are very technical, and a mistake or inaction may affect your rights. For example, your case may be dismissed because you did not file a required document, pay a fee on time, attend a meeting or hearing, or cooperate with the court, case trustee, U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or audit firm if your case is selected for audit. If that happens, you could lose your right to file another case, or you may lose protections, including the benefit of the automatic stay.

You must list all your property and debts in the schedules that you are required to file with the court. Even if you plan to pay a particular debt outside of your bankruptcy, you must list that debt in your schedules. If you do not list a debt, the debt may not be discharged. If you do not list property or properly claim it as exempt, you may not be able to keep the property. The judge can also deny you a discharge of all your debts if you do something dishonest in your bankruptcy case, such as destroying or hiding property, falsifying records, or lying. Individual bankruptcy cases are randomly audited to determine if debtors have been accurate, truthful, and complete. Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned.

If you decide to file without an attorney, the court expects you to follow the rules as if you had hired an attorney. The court will not treat you differently because you are filing for yourself. To be successful, you must be familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code, the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and the local rules of the court in which your case is filed. You must also be familiar with any state exemption laws that apply.

Are you aware that filing for bankruptcy is a serious action with long-term financial and legal consequences?

- No
- Yes

Are you aware that bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime and that if your bankruptcy forms are inaccurate or incomplete, you could be fined or imprisoned?

- No
- Yes

Did you pay or agree to pay someone who is not an attorney to help you fill out your bankruptcy forms?

- No
- Yes. Name of Person _____

Attach Bankruptcy Petition Preparer's Notice, Declaration, and Signature (Official Form 119).

By signing here, I acknowledge that I understand the risks involved in filing without an attorney. I have read and understood this notice, and I am aware that filing a bankruptcy case without an attorney may cause me to lose my rights or property if I do not properly handle the case.

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

- You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)
- You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)

2. For any property you list on Schedule A/B that you claim as exempt, fill in the information below.

Brief description of the property and line on Schedule A/B that lists this property	Current value of the portion you own	Amount of the exemption you claim	Specific laws that allow exemption

3. Are you claiming a homestead exemption of more than $160,375?

(Subject to adjustment on 4/01/19 and every 3 years after that for cases filed on or after the date of adjustment.)

- No
- Yes. Did you acquire the property covered by the exemption within 1,215 days before you filed this case?
 - No
 - Yes

Part 2: List Others to Be Notified for a Debt That You Already Listed

Use this page only if you have others to be notified about your bankruptcy for a debt that you already listed in Part 1. For example, if a collection agency is trying to collect from you for a debt you owe to someone else, list the creditor in Part 1, and then list the collection agency here. Similarly, if you have more than one creditor for any of the debts that you listed in Part 1, list the additional creditors here. If you do not have additional persons to be notified for any debts in Part 1, do not fill out or submit this page.

Schedule E/F: Creditors Who Have Unsecured Claims

Be as complete and accurate as possible. Use Part 1 for creditors with PRIORITY claims and Part 2 for creditors with NONPRIORITY claims. List the other party to any executory contracts or unexpired leases that could result in a claim. Also list executory contracts on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) and on Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (Official Form 106G). Do not include any creditors with partially secured claims that are listed in Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property. If more space is needed, copy the Part you need, fill it out, number the entries in the boxes on the left. Attach the Continuation Page to this page. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: List All of Your PRIORITY Unsecured Claims

1. Do any creditors have priority unsecured claims against you?

- No. Go to Part 2.
- Yes.

2. List all of your priority unsecured claims. If a creditor has more than one priority unsecured claim, list the creditor separately for each claim. For each claim listed, identify what type of claim it is. If a claim has both priority and nonpriority amounts, list that claim here and show both priority and nonpriority amounts. As much as possible, list the claims in alphabetical order according to the creditor's name. If you have more than two priority unsecured claims, fill out the Continuation Page of Part 1. If more than one creditor holds a particular claim, list the other creditors in Part 3.

(For an explanation of each type of claim, see the instructions for this form in the instruction booklet.)

Statement of Intention for Individuals Filing Under Chapter 7

If you are an individual filing under chapter 7, you must fill out this form if:

- creditors have claims secured by your property, or
- you have leased personal property and the lease has not expired.

You must file this form with the court within 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition or by the date set for the meeting of creditors, whichever is earlier, unless the court extends the time for cause. You must also send copies to the creditors and lessors you list on the form.

If two married people are filing together in a joint case, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Both debtors must sign and date the form.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

Part 1: List Your Creditors Who Have Secured Claims

1. For any creditors that you listed in Part 1 of Schedule D: Creditors Who Have Claims Secured by Property (Official Form 106D), fill in the information below.

PART I. REAFFIRMATION AGREEMENT

Reaffirming a debt is a serious financial decision. Before entering into this Reaffirmation Agreement, you must review the important disclosures, instructions, and definitions found in Part V of this form.

A. Brief description of the original agreement being reaffirmed: _____

For example, auto loan

B. AMOUNT REAFFIRMED: $ _____

The Amount Reaffirmed is the entire amount that you are agreeing to pay. This may include unpaid principal, interest, and fees and costs (if any) arising on or before _____, which is the date of the Disclosure Statement portion of this form (Part V).

See the definition of "Amount Reaffirmed" in Part V, Section C below.

C. The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE applicable to the Amount Reaffirmed is _____%.

See definition of "Annual Percentage Rate" in Part V, Section C below.

This is a (check one) Fixed rate

Variable rate

If the loan has a variable rate, the future interest rate may increase or decrease from the Annual Percentage Rate disclosed here.

D. Reaffirmation Agreement Repayment Terms (check and complete one):

- $_____ per month for _____ months starting on_____.
- Describe repayment terms, including whether future payment amount(s) may be different from the initial payment amount.

E. Describe the collateral, if any, securing the debt:

Description: _____
 Current Market Value $_____

F. Did the debt that is being reaffirmed arise from the purchase of the collateral described above?

- Yes. What was the purchase price for the collateral? $_____
- No. What was the amount of the original loan? $_____

G. Specify the changes made by this Reaffirmation Agreement to the most recent credit terms on the reaffirmed debt and any related agreement:

C. If your answer to EITHER question A. or B. above is “No,” complete 1. and 2. below.

1. Your present monthly income and expenses are:

a. Monthly income from all sources after payroll deductions (take-home pay plus any other income) $_____

b. Monthly expenses (including all reaffirmed debts except this one) $_____

c. Amount available to pay this reaffirmed debt (subtract b. from a.) $_____

d. Amount of monthly payment required for this reaffirmed debt $_____

If the monthly payment on this reaffirmed debt (line d.) is greater than the amount you have available to pay this reaffirmed debt (line c.), you must check the box at the top of page one that says “Presumption of Undue Hardship.” Otherwise, you must check the box at the top of page one that says “No Presumption of Undue Hardship.”

2. You believe that this reaffirmation agreement will not impose an undue hardship on you or your dependents because:

Check one of the two statements below, if applicable:

You can afford to make the payments on the reaffirmed debt because your monthly income is greater than your monthly expenses even after you include in your expenses the monthly payments on all debts you are reaffirming, including this one.

You can afford to make the payments on the reaffirmed debt even though your monthly income is less than your monthly expenses after you include in your expenses the monthly payments on all debts you are reaffirming, including this one, because:

Use an additional page if needed for a full explanation.

D. If your answers to BOTH questions A. and B. above were “Yes,” check the following statement, if applicable:

You believe this Reaffirmation Agreement is in your financial interest and you can afford to make the payments on the reaffirmed debt.

Also, check the box at the top of page one that says “No Presumption of Undue Hardship.”

PART V. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND INSTRUCTIONS TO DEBTOR(S)

Before agreeing to reaffirm a debt, review the terms disclosed in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I above) and these additional important disclosures and instructions.

Reaffirming a debt is a serious financial decision. The law requires you to take certain steps to make sure the decision is in your best interest. If these steps, which are detailed in the Instructions provided in Part V, Section B below, are not completed, the Reaffirmation Agreement is not effective, even though you have signed it.

A. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

- 1. What are your obligations if you reaffirm a debt? A reaffirmed debt remains your personal legal obligation to pay. Your reaffirmed debt is not discharged in your bankruptcy case. That means that if you default on your reaffirmed debt after your bankruptcy case is over, your creditor may be able to take your property or your wages. Your obligations will be determined by the Reaffirmation Agreement, which may have changed the terms of the original agreement. If you are reaffirming an open end credit agreement, that agreement or applicable law may permit the creditor to change the terms of that agreement in the future under certain conditions.
- 2. Are you required to enter into a reaffirmation agreement by any law? No, you are not required to reaffirm a debt by any law. Only agree to reaffirm a debt if it is in your best interest. Be sure you can afford the payments that you agree to make.
- 3. What if your creditor has a security interest or lien? Your bankruptcy discharge does not eliminate any lien on your property. A “lien” is often referred to as a security interest, deed of trust, mortgage, or security deed. The property subject to a lien is often referred to as collateral. Even if you do not reaffirm and your personal liability on the debt is discharged, your creditor may still have a right under the lien to take the collateral if you do not pay or default on the debt. If the collateral is personal property that is exempt or that the trustee has abandoned, you may be able to redeem the item rather than reaffirm the debt. To redeem, you make a single payment to the creditor equal to the current value of the collateral, as the parties agree or the court determines.
- 4. How soon do you need to enter into and file a reaffirmation agreement? If you decide to enter into a reaffirmation agreement, you must do so before you receive your discharge. After you have entered into a reaffirmation agreement and all parts of this form that require a signature have been signed, either you or the creditor should file it as soon as possible. The signed agreement must be filed with the court no later than 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors, so that the court will have time to schedule a hearing to approve the agreement if approval is required. However, the court may extend the time for filing, even after the 60-day period has ended.
- 5. Can you cancel the agreement? You may rescind (cancel) your Reaffirmation Agreement at any time before the bankruptcy court enters your discharge, or during the 60-day period that begins on the date your Reaffirmation Agreement is filed with the court, whichever occurs later. To rescind (cancel) your Reaffirmation Agreement, you must notify the creditor that your Reaffirmation Agreement is rescinded (or canceled). Remember that you can rescind the agreement, even if the court approves it, as long as you rescind within the time allowed.

6. When will this Reaffirmation Agreement be effective?

a. If you were represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your Reaffirmation Agreement and

i. if the creditor is not a Credit Union, your Reaffirmation Agreement becomes effective when it is filed with the court unless the reaffirmation is presumed to be an undue hardship. If the Reaffirmation Agreement is presumed to be an undue hardship, the court must review it and may set a hearing to determine whether you have rebutted the presumption of undue hardship.

ii. if the creditor is a Credit Union, your Reaffirmation Agreement becomes effective when it is filed with the court.

b. If you were not represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your Reaffirmation Agreement, the Reaffirmation Agreement will not be effective unless the court approves it. To have the court approve your agreement, you must file a motion. See Instruction 5, below. The court will notify you and the creditor of the hearing on your Reaffirmation Agreement. You must attend this hearing, at which time the judge will review your Reaffirmation Agreement. If the judge decides that the Reaffirmation Agreement is in your best interest, the agreement will be approved and will become effective. However, if your Reaffirmation Agreement is for a consumer debt secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, security deed, or other lien on your real property, like your home, you do not need to file a motion or get court approval of your Reaffirmation Agreement.

7. What if you have questions about what a creditor can do? If you have questions about reaffirming a debt or what the law requires, consult with the attorney who helped you negotiate this agreement. If you do not have an attorney helping you, you may ask the judge to explain the effect of this agreement to you at the hearing to approve the Reaffirmation Agreement. When this disclosure refers to what a creditor “may” do, it is not giving any creditor permission to do anything. The word “may” is used to tell you what might occur if the law permits the creditor to take the action.

B. INSTRUCTIONS

1. Review these Disclosures and carefully consider your decision to reaffirm. If you want to reaffirm, review and complete the information contained in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I above). If your case is a joint case, both spouses must sign the agreement if both are reaffirming the debt.
2. Complete the Debtor’s Statement in Support of Reaffirmation Agreement (Part II above). Be sure that you can afford to make the payments that you are agreeing to make and that you have received a copy of the Disclosure Statement and a completed and signed Reaffirmation Agreement.
3. If you were represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your Reaffirmation Agreement, your attorney must sign and date the Certification By Debtor’s Attorney (Part IV above).
4. You or your creditor must file with the court the original of this Reaffirmation Documents packet and a completed Reaffirmation Agreement Cover Sheet (Official Bankruptcy Form 427).
5. If you are not represented by an attorney, you must also complete and file with the court a separate document entitled “Motion for Court Approval of Reaffirmation Agreement” unless your Reaffirmation Agreement is for a consumer debt secured by a lien on your real property, such as your home. You can use Form 2400B to do this.

C. DEFINITIONS

1. “Amount Reaffirmed” means the total amount of debt that you are agreeing to pay (reaffirm) by entering into this agreement. The total amount of debt includes any unpaid fees and costs that you are agreeing to pay that arose on or before the date of disclosure, which is the date specified in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I, Section B above). Your credit agreement may obligate you to pay additional amounts that arise after the date of this disclosure. You should consult your credit agreement to determine whether you are obligated to pay additional amounts that may arise after the date of this disclosure.
2. “Annual Percentage Rate” means the interest rate on a loan expressed under the rules required by federal law. The annual percentage rate (as opposed to the “stated interest rate”) tells you the full cost of your credit including many of the creditor’s fees and charges. You will find the annual percentage rate for your original agreement on the disclosure statement that was given to you when the loan papers were signed or on the monthly statements sent to you for an open end credit account such as a credit card.
3. “Credit Union” means a financial institution as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 461(b)(1)(A)(iv). It is owned and controlled by and provides financial services to its members and typically uses words like “Credit Union” or initials like “C.U.” or “F.C.U.” in its name.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

- You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and
- Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as “incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose.”

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of the Bankruptcy Code:

- Chapter 7 — Liquidation
- Chapter 11 — Reorganization
- Chapter 12 — Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen
- Chapter 13 — Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

	$245	filing fee
	$75	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

- most taxes;
- most student loans;
- domestic support and property settlement obligations;

- most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

- fraud or theft;
- fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;
- intentional injuries that you inflicted; and
- death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$550	administrative fee
	$1,717	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:

http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

- If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.
- All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:

http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

COMMONLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What persons are not eligible for a Chapter 7 discharge?

- ▶ A person who has been granted a discharge in a Chapter 7 case filed within the last eight years.
- ▶ A person who has been granted a discharge in a Chapter 13 case filed within the last six years, unless 70 percent or more of the unsecured claims were paid off in the Chapter 13 case.
- ▶ A person who files a waiver of discharge that is approved by the court in the Chapter 7 case.
- ▶ A person who conceals, transfers, or destroys his or her property with the intent to defraud his or her creditors or the trustee in the Chapter 7 case.
- ▶ A person who conceals, destroys, or falsifies records of his or her financial condition or business transactions.
- ▶ A person who makes false statements or claims in the Chapter 7 case, or who withholds information from the trustee.
- ▶ A person who fails to satisfactorily explain any loss or deficiency of his or her assets.
- ▶ A person who refuses to answer questions or obey orders of the bankruptcy court, either in his or her bankruptcy case or in the bankruptcy case of a relative, business associate, or corporation with which he or she is associated.

2. When should both spouses file a joint petition under Chapter 7?

When one or more substantial dischargeable debts are owed by both spouses. If both spouses are liable for a substantial debt and only one spouse files under Chapter 7, the creditor may later attempt to collect the debt from the nonfiling spouse, even if he or she has no income or assets.

3. How does filing under Chapter 7 affect a person's credit rating?

The credit rating of a person who files a Chapter 7 case will get worse. However, some financial institutions openly solicit business from persons who have recently filed under Chapter 7. If there are compelling reasons for filing under Chapter 7 that are not within the debtor's control (such as an illness or an injury), some credit rating agencies may take that into account in rating the debtor's credit after filing.

4. May a person file under Chapter 7 if his or her debts are being administered by a financial counselor?

Yes. A financial counselor has no legal right to prevent anyone from filing under Chapter 7.

5. Are employers notified of Chapter 7 cases?

Employers are not usually notified when a Chapter 7 case is filed. However, the trustee in a Chapter 7 case often contacts an employer seeking information as to the status of the debtor's wages or salary at the time the case was filed. If there are compelling reasons for not informing an employer in a particular case, the trustee should be so informed and he or she may be willing to make other arrangements to obtain the necessary information.

6. Does a person lose all of his or her property by filing under Chapter 7?

Certain property is exempt and cannot be taken by creditors, unless it is encumbered by a valid mortgage or lien. A debtor is usually allowed to retain his or her unsecured exempt property in a Chapter 7 case. A debtor may also be allowed to retain certain secured exempt property.

7. How are secured creditors dealt with in a Chapter 7 case?

Secured creditors are creditors with valid mortgages or liens against property of the debtor. Property of the debtor that is encumbered by a valid mortgage or lien is called secured property. A secured creditor is usually permitted to repossess or foreclose its secured property, unless the value of the secured property exceeds the amount owed to the creditor. After a petition has been filed, a secured creditor must prove the validity of its mortgage or lien and obtain a court order before repossessing or foreclosing on secured property. The debtor should not turn any property over to a secured creditor until a court order has been obtained. The debtor may be permitted to retain or redeem certain secured personal property.

8. How are unsecured creditors dealt with in a Chapter 7 case?

An unsecured creditor is a creditor without a valid lien or mortgage against property of the debtor. If the debtor has nonexempt assets, unsecured creditors may file claims with the court within 90 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors. The trustee will examine these claims and file objections to those deemed improper. When the trustee has collected all of the debtor's nonexempt property and converted it to cash, and when the court has ruled on the trustee's objections, the trustee will distribute the funds to the unsecured creditors according to the priorities set forth in the Bankruptcy Code. Administrative expenses, claims for wages, salaries, and contributions to employee benefit programs, claims for the refund of certain deposits, and tax claims, are given priority, in that order, in the payment of dividends by the trustee. If there are funds remaining after the payment of these priority claims, they are distributed pro rata to the remaining unsecured creditors.

9. How can a debtor minimize the amount of money or property that must be turned over to the trustee in a Chapter 7 case?

In a Chapter 7 case the debtor is required to turn over to the trustee only the nonexempt money or property that he or she possessed at the time the case was filed. Many nonexempt assets of consumer debtors are liquid in nature and tend to vary in size or amount from day to day. The most common nonexempt liquid assets, and the assets that the trustee will be most likely to look for, include the following: (1) cash, (2) bank accounts, (3) prepaid rent, (4) landlord and utility deposits, (5) accrued earnings and benefits, and (6) tax refunds.

It is usually advantageous for the debtor to take steps to insure that the value of each of these assets is as low as possible on the day and hour that the Chapter 7 case is filed. By doing this the debtor will not be cheating or acting illegally; the debtor will simply be using the law to his or her advantage, much the same as a person who takes advantage of loopholes in the tax laws.

Cash. If possible, the debtor should have no cash on hand when the Chapter 7 case is filed. Further, if the debtor has received cash or the equivalent of cash in the form of a paycheck or the closing of a bank account shortly before the filing of the case, the debtor should obtain receipts when disposing of the funds in order to prove to the trustee and the court that the funds were disposed of prior to the filing of the case. Money possessed by the debtor shortly before the filing of the Chapter 7 case, may be spent on such items as food and groceries, the Chapter 7 filing fee, the attorney's fee in the Chapter 7 case, and the payment of $600 to creditors whom the debtor intends to continue paying after the filing of the Chapter 7 case. Payments should not be made to friends or relatives, however, as the trustee may later recover these payments.

Bank Accounts. The best practice is to close out all bank accounts before filing under Chapter 7. If a bank account is not closed, the balance of the account should be as close to zero as the bank will allow and all out-standing checks must clear the account before the case is filed. If the debtor has written a check to someone for, say, $50 and if the check has not cleared the account when the case is filed, the $50 in the account to cover the outstanding check will be deemed an asset of the debtor and will have to be paid to the trustee.

Prepaid Rent. If the debtor's rent is paid on the first day of the month and if the debtor's Chapter 7 case is filed on the tenth day of the month, the portion of the rent covering the last 20 days of the month, if not exempt, will be deemed an asset of the debtor and will later have to be paid to the trustee. If possible, the debtor should make arrangements with the landlord to pay rent only through the date that the case is to be filed and to pay the balance of the rent from funds acquired after the case is filed. If this is not possible, the case should be filed near the end of the rent period.

Landlord and Utility Deposits. Unless they are exempt, the debtor may attempt to obtain the refund of all landlord and utility deposits before filing a Chapter 7 case. Otherwise, the deposits, or their cash equivalents, will have to be paid to the trustee.

Accrued Earnings and Benefits. In most states, and under the federal law, only a certain percentage (usually 75%) of a debtor's earnings are exempt. Therefore, the trustee may be allowed to take the nonexempt portion (usually 25%) of any accrued and unpaid wages, salary, commissions, vacation pay, sick leave pay, and other accrued and nonexempt employee benefits. Normally, then, the best time to file a Chapter 7 case is the morning after payday. Even then, if the pay period does not end on payday, the debtor may have accrued earnings unless special arrangements are made with the employer. If annual leave or vacation pay is convertible to cash, it should be collected by the debtor before the Chapter 7 case is filed, as should any other nonexempt employee benefits that are convertible to cash.

Tax Refunds. In most states, a tax refund is nonexempt and becomes the property of the trustee if it has not been received by the debtor prior to the filing of a Chapter 7 case. Therefore, if the debtor is scheduled to receive a tax refund, a Chapter 7 case should not be filed until after the refund has been received and disposed of. Even if the case is filed before the end of the tax year, if the debtor later receives a refund, the trustee may be entitled to the portion of the refund earned prior to the filing of the case. The best practice, then, is to either file the Chapter 7 case early in the tax year (but after the refund from the previous year has been received) or make arrangements to insure that there will be not tax refund for that year.

10. How long does a Chapter 7 case last?

A Chapter 7 case begins with the filing of the case and ends with the closing of the case by the court. If the debtor has no nonexempt assets for the trustee to collect, the case will most likely be closed shortly after the debtor receives his or her discharge, which is usually four months after the case is filed. If the debtor has nonexempt assets for the trustee to collect, the length of the case will depend on how long it takes the trustee to collect the assets and perform his or her other duties in the case. Most consumer cases with assets last about six months, but some last considerably longer.

11. What should a person do if a creditor later attempts to collect a debt that was discharged under Chapter 7?

When a Chapter 7 discharge is granted, the court enters an order prohibiting the debtor's creditors from later attempting to collect any discharged debt from the debtor. Any creditor who violates this court order may be held in contempt of court and may be liable to the debtor in damages. If a creditor later attempts to collect a discharged debt from the debtor, the debtor should give the creditor a copy of the order of discharge and inform the creditor in writing that the debt has been discharged under Chapter 7. If the creditor persists, the debtor should contact an attorney. If a creditor files a lawsuit against the debtor on a discharged debt, it is important not to ignore the matter, because even though a judgment entered against the debtor on a discharged debt can later be voided, voiding the judgment may require the services of an attorney, which could be costly to the debtor.

RUTGERS BANKRUPTCY PRO BONO PROJECT
STUDENT EVALUATION

Each student is required to fill out this form for each client interview they participate in or observe. All information provided will be kept CONFIDENTIAL. The only people who will have access to these forms are the Project Coordinators. Please feel free to add additional comments.

Your Name: _____
Attorney's Name: _____
Client's Name: _____
Date of Interview: _____

1. Who conducted the interview? If more than one person, who did what? What do you feel you added to the interviewing process? Now that the initial interview has been completed, what are the next steps in your case and who will be doing what?

2. What was your impression of the attorney that you worked with? If you had the option to work with this attorney again, would you want to, why or why not?

3. What do you like about the program? What do you dislike about the program? Assuming that you had to change this program, what changes would you implement?
